CHILD & YOUTH PROGRAM

OUR MISSION

The mission of the Child and Youth Program is to promote and sustain the quality of life and resilience of dependent children and youth by providing secure, timely, flexible, high-quality support service and enrichment programs.

GET INVOLVED

Join as many, or as few events, as you want! We offer in-person and virtual opportunities for military youth to meet each other and form a community together while learning useful life skills to help youth navigate military life. Some events that occur throughout the year include:

-Summer & Winter Camps:

3-5 day overnight camps for youth ages 9 and up.

-Youth Groups:

1-hour regional gatherings monthly that allow youth to meet and learn more about what we have going on.

-Teen Retreats:

a weekend retreat and training for our teen leaders.

BECOME A CHAPERONE

Join us as an adult chaperone for an enriching camp experience! You'll play a crucial role in ensuring the safety and engagement of our youth while supporting camp directors.

Requirements:

- Must be 19 years old by camp start date
- Pass a background check
- Complete 30 minutes of training before camp

Key Responsibilities:

- Assist with check-in and camper orientation.
- Facilitate activities and ensure youth participation.
- Maintain a safe environment and support youth in need.

RISK REDUCTION PROGRAM

The Army Risk Reduction Program (RRP) identifies and addresses high-risk behaviors that can impact Soldier readiness and unit effectiveness. By analyzing trends and providing targeted resources, RRP helps leaders support Soldiers and build a healthier, more resilient force.

The Idaho National Guard Substance Abuse Program (ASAP) and its Suicide Prevention Program promote readiness and resilience by providing education, prevention, and treatment services to reduce substance misuse among Soldiers and their families. The program focuses on strengthening individual well-being and maintaining a safe, drug-free force.

If you, or someone you know, feels that turning to alcohol or drugs, or contemplating suicide, is an option to solving those problems, please contact the RRP/ASAP office.

SEXUAL ASSAULT RESPONSE COORDINATORS (SARC)

Our Mission

The Joint Forces Headquarters Sexual Assault Response Coordinators serve as the single point of contact with the State of Idaho Military Division to coordinate a response to sexual assault when a report is made. We assist the senior commander to ensure victims receive responsive care, and refer or assign victims to a victim advocate. The SARC tracks each individual from beginning to end to ensure that all victims receive the proper care and treatment they deserve. Additionally, the SARC ensures proper reporting and confidentiality.

YELLOW RIBBON REINTEGRATION PROGRAM

Connecting Service Members and Families to Support - Before, During and After Deployment

The Yellow Ribbon Reintegration Program is a Department of Defense initiative that supports National Guard and Reserve Service Members and their Families through all phases of the deployment cycle.

Through in-person and virtual events hosted by the Idaho National Guard, YRRP provides valuable education and connections to resources that promote readiness, wellness, and successful reintegration. Event sessions include topics such as financial planning, communication and relationships, employment and education benefits, mental health resources, and navigating community and military support systems.

Each event offers a welcoming, family-focused environment where Service Members and loved ones can learn, ask questions, and connect with others who understand the unique challenges of military life.

Whether you're preparing to deploy, currently serving, or adjusting to life back home, YRRP ensures you have access to the tools and people who can help every step of the way.

RETIREMENT SERVICES OFFICE

Continuing to Serve Those Who Have Served

The Idaho National Guard Retiree Services Office (RSO) is dedicated to supporting our retired Soldiers, their Families, and surviving spouses by serving as a bridge between the retired community and the U.S. Army.

The RSO provides assistance with

- ✓ Processing Retirement Packets
- ✓ TRICARE Enrollment Assistance
- ✓ Insurance/Dental/Vision Plans through FEVIP
- ✓ Survivor Benefits for Widows/Widowers and More

Beyond administrative support, the RSO fosters continued connection to the Guard family by encouraging participation in retiree events and volunteer opportunities. This connection strengthens the bond between those who have served and the next generation of Soldiers still in uniform.

Whether you're approaching retirement, newly retired, or decades beyond your last day in service, the Idaho National Guard RSO is here to help you navigate every step of the retirement journey.

EMPLOYER SUPPORT OF THE GUARD AND RESERVE

Idaho Employer Support of the Guard and Reserve (ESGR) is a Department of Defense program that develops and promotes supportive work environments for service members in the Reserve components through outreach, recognition, and educational opportunities that increase awareness of applicable laws.

What we do:

- Educates: ESGR informs and educates service members and their civilian employers regarding their rights and responsibilities under the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act (USERRA).
- Advocates: ESGR advocates relevant initiatives on behalf of employers, service members and their families.
- Recognize: ESGR recognizes and awards employers who practice human resource personnel policies that support employee participation in the Guard and Reserve with a series of DoD employer awards.
- Mediate: Trained ombudsmen provide information and mediation concerning the USERRA law.

EDUCATION RESOURCES

IDARNG EDUCATION OFFICE

“Providing a legacy of education...
without a future of debt.”

The IDARNG Education Office assists soldiers with pursuing their civilian higher education goals and promotes life-long learning by administering a number of different programs including GI Bill, Tuition Assistance, and CLEP testing.

IDARNG soldiers may qualify for up to four different GI Bill programs with various payment rates (dependent on their enlistment and deployments).

Federal Tuition Assistance (FTA)

Federal Tuition Assistance provides up to $250 per tuition semester hour and up to $4,500 for 18 semester hours a federal fiscal year.

State Education Assistance Program (SEAP)

SEAP provides up to $8,000 for tuition and registration fees for schools in Idaho.

GI Bill

The GI Bill provides education benefits directly to eligible students who serve in the armed services. There are several different types of GI Bills and eligibility requirements, but most benefits can be used to pay for college, a trade or apprenticeship program, or other professional licensing programs. Some benefits can be transferred to your spouse and children.

Student Loan Repayment

Some Soldiers are eligible for student loan repayment plans. Ask your recruiter if you qualify.
